ACTIVITY UNDERTAKEN:

1. 25th November, 2023

Observation of Constitution Day

The Department of Political Science of D.H.S.K College and Dr. Rohini Kanta Barua Law College jointly observed the Constitution Day at the college premises of Dr. R.K.B. Law College on 25th day of November, 2023. The event chaired by the Principals of both the colleges Dr. Sashi Kanta Saikia and Dr. Gautomi Dutta Bora respectively. The HoD of the Political Science Department of D.H.S.K College, Dr. L. DOUNGEL and by Mr. Iqbal Ahmed, Senior Journalist and Former President of All Assam Journalist Forum were the dignitaries present in the program. The Theme of the event was Democracy, Constitution and Role of Media in India. The event began with the ceremony of lighting of the lamp and paying tribute to Dr. B.R. Ambedkar. It was followed by an introductory speech presented by Dr. L. DOUNGEL. The Principal of Dr. R.K.B. Law College delivered the welcome speech. It was then followed by pledge taking ceremony of the Preamble of the Constitution leaded by Sri Siddhant Jaiswal, General Secretary of Dr Rohini Kanta Barua Law College Students' Union. The resource person Mr. Iqbal Ahmed spoke on the main theme of the event and beautifully highlighted all the important aspects of democracy, the Constitution of India and the Role of Media in maintaining the spirit of Constitutional Democracy in India. He initiated his speech by explaining the meaning and the types of democracy, freedom of speech and the concept of constitutional governance. He then highlighted that how media actually originated from the basic roots of communication. He even spoke on the aspects of verification of the authenticity of the news published or broadcasted by the media and the factors that influences the functioning of the journalists. He concluded his speech by explaining the newly emerging concept of 'Media Imperialism' and the conversion of 5Ws to 5Cs. Most notably during his speech he remarked that the American Constitution at a very early stage recognized the Freedom of Press but India being the world's largest democracy has failed to recognize such a freedom yet in the Constitution that unfortunately causes obstacles in exercising such freedom by the Indian media. His speech was followed by an interactive session where the students from both the institution participated and the deliberations of the resource persons made the session even more enlightening. Finally, the formal Vote of Thanks was delivered by Dr. Biraj Dutta, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, D.H.S.K College. At last the event was concluded by the performance of the State Anthem by the students of Dr. R.K.B. Law College. The entire event was moderated by Dr. Jayanta Boruah, Assistant Professor, Dr. R.K.B. Law College. It was attended by the faculties of both the institutions and almost 100 students from both the institutions.
